

CHAPTER 14

Part V. From the Marginal Questions

1. Can you name ten descriptions used by our church forefathers in the articles quoted (Canons of Dordt: Heads III and IV – Articles 11 and 12), to describe regeneration?

2. Why is free grace free from the error of glorifying man?

3. How does the teaching of decisional regeneration contradict the doctrines of Scripture contained in the Five Points of Calvinism?

4. What is the difference between: slavish and child-like fear; between forced and loving obedience? Which type of fear and obedience is active in true conversion?

5. How does a proper understanding of repentance do away with the “easy-believism” idea of “simply making a decision for God” or “accepting Christ and then all is well”?
